

Message from the Convenor

Welcome to the informative world of opportunities and future....

Located away from the maddening city rush amidst the natural surroundings, MESCO offers the minutiae detail course in Management and Computer Sciences for all those who nevertheless wants to prove themselves, differently from the crowd.

MESCO always strive to make each and every single student stand on their own feet in the competitive world that we are living in. As your future depends on what kind of breeding you get today, MESCO cultivate and grooms you for all that and more.

Certainly the future lies in your own hands.
